Chicago Ill. News.

John Howard, colored, who was accused of murdering Mrs. Lucy Churchill, colored, 76 years old in her home, 3445 Armour avenue, was found not guilty by a jury in Judge Dupuy's court this week. Howard is alleged to have killed Mrs. Churchill after a quarrel because his supper was not ready. It was charged he threw a plate at her, injuring her in the eye, from which she died. The defense was that she died of infirmities due to old age.

Mr. Howard was defended by R. M. Mitchell, one of the leading ablest colored lawyers of that city, a property owner and a man recognized for his ability and influence in the community. He has a large practice. The jury was out only 17 minutes.

Thanksgiving Entertainment.

AT MASONIC HALL.

The outlook for the Thanksgiving entertainment at Masonic hall promises to be the event of the season. The program as arranged will be carried out in full. The skit, Miss Gasoline burning up will be served to make you laugh. After the show dancing to a good orchestra will be the diversions. Remember Thanksgiving night.
